Make a Paperweight

Glass-blowing has a long history. Take a visit to New Zealand's first national centre for community glass and witness the delicate art of glass-blowing first hand. Better still, make your own coloured paperweight in our 30 minute workshops available from 10am to 4pm on Saturday 19 January. One participant per workshop. Little or no experience needed. A hands on and fun experience, with a vintage vibe!

Family and friends can shop at our lovely gallery, or watch you in action from the viewing platform.
